Most often you'll see the promise of Amazon gift card code "lists" in return for your contact information, and that will be sold everywhere else on the internet.

Then, move on to the choices that interest you most. For instance, if you enjoy learning about new games, then you definitely might wish to check out an app that rewards you for this activity type. If, on the other hand, you love to talk about your opinion and influence brands, afterward paid online surveys may be your best option.

I can attest to InstaGC being immediate, but the only disadvantage is the fact that once you hit 1dolar1 600 for the entire year, you've to provide them your SSN before cashing out (apparently for tax purposes). I ran into that issue this year while trying to save for Christmas. So, fair warning if you join up on InstaGC, try not to make more than 1dolar1 600 a year unless you wish to deal with getting a 1099 MISC.

MyPoints and PrizeRebel are excellent options. I double-checked and no SSN is required, so that's an additional bonus. MyPoints gift cards take a short time to get to the email of yours and it's completely legit, but I'll need to get back to you on PrizeRebel since I've just been making use of them for about a couple months (and have yet to cash out there). They actually do have PayPal cashouts, which is nice, especially if you'd prefer cash rather than gift cards.

The 1dolar1 600 a year threshold is an lrs rule. In reality, all of these apps/sites are legally required to report the income of yours if you get above 1dolar1 600 from them.
