Most often you'll see the promise of Amazon gift card code "lists" in exchange for your contact information, which will be sold elsewhere on the internet.

Then, move on to the options that interest you most. For example, if you like to learn about new games, then you may wish to check out an app which rewards you for this activity type. If, on the other hand, you love to share your opinion and influence brands, afterward paid online surveys may be your best option.

--> seven seven comments.

I can easily attest to InstaGC being instant, though the one disadvantage is that once you hit 1dolar1 600 for the year, you have to provide them the SSN of yours before cashing out (apparently for tax purposes). I ran into that issue this year while looking to save for Christmas. So, fair warning if you join up on InstaGC, don't make more than 1dolar1 600 a year unless you wish to cope with getting a 1099-MISC.

MyPoints and PrizeRebel are also excellent options. I double-checked and no SSN is needed, so that's an added bonus. MyPoints gift cards take a few days to get to your email and it is completely legit, though I'll need to return to you on PrizeRebel since I have only been making use of them for around a couple months (and have yet to cash out there). They do have PayPal cashouts, which is nice, particularly if you would prefer cash rather than gift cards.

The 1dolar1 600 a year threshold is an lrs rule. In fact, all of these apps/sites are legally required to report your income if you get above 1dolar1 600 from them.
